

JUST LEADERSHIP PROGRAM

The program affords selected students the opportunity to affiliate with, learn from and listen to high profile speakers who are closely associated with social justice and equity issues in the law. Students get to attend a series of seminars on social justice issues and create a project related to these issues.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Attend seminars on a range of contemporary social justice issues
- Undertake a group project related to one of ten seminars such as policy article or parliamentary submission

PRE-REQS

Open to Monash Law Students of all year levels, undergraduate and post-graduate. Selection based on commitment to social justice issues, relevant work experience and goals, academic performance, and ability to work within a team.

UP-SKILLING

- Teamwork
- Social awareness
- Engagement with social justice issues

APPLICATION DETAILS

- Online application form submission
- Applications open: 26 February
- Applications close: 9 March
- First seminar: 27 March

Want more info?

Info sessions: justleadership@monashlss.com

Visit: www.monashlss.com/single-post/2018/03/12/JUST-LEADERSHIP-PROGRAM