GRADE EXPECTATIONS

Grades are considered moderately important. Generally, mid-tier law firms do have a grade cut off, but consider all factors holistically.

LEGAL EXPERIENCE

Any legal experience is desired provided the applicant has sought out these opportunities in their own capacity, rather than 'falling' into the role

NON-LEGAL EXPERIENCE

Client-centric employment (e.g. retail, hospitality)

Involvement in team sports

DIFFERENTIATING YOURSELF

Show you are well-rounded

Correct spelling & punctuation

Ensure you answer the questions asked

Have a genuine interest in the firm you apply for
